

Team Charter: Team 12 - Code Corps

Current team manager: Jerry Yan

Team Members: Anna Waldron, Vi Cao

Method of Communication: Discord Channel

Team Color: Green

The team vision statement:

Our team's vision for this class is to learn the best practices, skills, and management styles for a career in the tech industry.

Language:

We will utilize the Core Protocols; pass, un-pass, check-in, check-out, and ask for help when required.

Diversity:

Our team consists of 3 team members. Our personality types are ENFP, ISTJ, and INTJ. Code Corp's has 2 members with previous management experience and 1 without. The team has a mix of diversity in its ethnicity and contains a United States Army veteran. There are two Computer Science majors and one Applied computing.

Rules:

- Allow a team member to openly express his / her emotional state without comment or judgment
- Allow a team member to not participate without prejudice or judgment
- Make all requests of a team member optional – however, the team member must explicitly acknowledge acceptance or not
- Define process for reaching agreement (consensus) in a clear and expedient manner including allowing voices of dissent to be heard and allowed
- Attempts to ensure the voice of all team members including method(s) to reduce the monopolization of voice
- Allows anyone to offer ideas without prejudice
- Allows anyone to critique and offer improvement of ideas

- Focuses on individuals and their own direct voice rather than the translated / interpreted voice by others who attempt to speak for an individual
- Communicates being absent from the team (in class, outside class, etc.